

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

41-2168

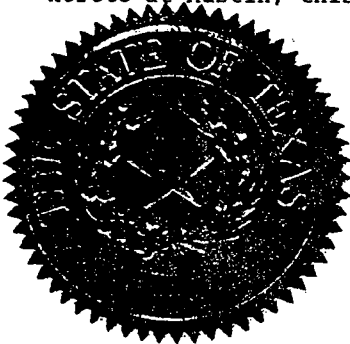

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 14 of the Texas Constitution, I William P. Clements, Jr., Governor of Texas, do hereby veto House Bill 1814 because of the following objections:

House Bill 1814 would extend the time a property owner has to give a notice of appeal. With the passage of Senate Bill 751, which provides for notifying a property owner of their right to appeal, it is not necessary to extend the period to file a notice of appeal. An extension of time to file the notice would disrupt the budgetary process of many of our school districts and inhibit the negotiation of a compromised value by the property owner and appraisal district.

The Secretary of State shall take notice of this action and notify the Legislature.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of the State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 19th day of June, 1987.
